Shoe donation drive by young professionals Mega-shoe drive is planned for this Sunday When the going gets tough in Covid times, the tough gets going

Shoes, the youths believe, symbolise the ability and urge to march forward in life-the hope of progress and growth

OUR STAFF REPORTER BHOPAL

A group of young professionals from the city distributed pairs of shoes to needy children during corona times. Their motto is to 'give a new hope of life' to the kids. Shoes, they say, symbolise the ability and the urge to march forward in life-the hope of progress and growth. Over the past eight months, they have donated around 5,000 new pairs of shoes. Their target group is children living in orphanages, homes for the differently abled, slum clusters and on the streets. Also, children who beg at places of worship and at railway stations, bus stops and other public places.
